Taras Shevchenko
Foremost Ukrainian poet of the 19th century and one of the most prominent figures of the Ukrainian national revival. Some of his most impactful work includes the poems “Testament”, “It Makes No Difference To Me”, “The Mighty Dnieper”.

Lina Kostenko
One of the most renowned Ukrainian poets of the sixties. She was awarded the most prestigious awards and decorations in Ukraine including the Taras Shevchenko National Prize (in 1987 for the novel "Marusya Churai" and the collection of poems "Uniqueness").

Serhiy Zhadan
Renowned post-soviet Ukrainian poet, writer, essayist, and translator. Author of worldwide popular novels such as “Voroshilovgrad” and “Depeche Mode”.

Andriy Kurkov
Ukrainian novelist and prolific author of more than 15 novels, including the successful “Death and the Penguin”, numerous books for children, but also documentary, fiction or even TV scripts.

Lubko Deresh
Ukrainian literature phenomenon and a representative of postmodern literature. “Kult”, “A Little Darkness" or the more recent “Devastation” are excellent examples of his writing style and literary interests.

Yurii Andrukhovich
Popular Ukrainian writer, poet, essayist, public activist and translator. He has published many short stories, poetry collections, essays or novels including “Moscoviad” (1993).

Oleksandr Mykhed
Ukrainian writer, literary critic, and curator of art projects at the PinchukArtCentre (a contemporary art museum in the very heart of Kyiv). A good example of his work is his book “Amnesia” published in 2013. Mykhed went even further with it and created the well-received literary, conceptual and multimedia project called “Amnesia project: an open platform”.

Lesya Ukrainka
One of Ukraine’s best-known national poets, also essayist, translator and author of numerous plays. She was an early feminist and politically engaged. Inspiring and impactful, her poetry embraced themes such as loneliness, hope, alienation from society or the love of freedom. Her extensive work includes the collections Nakrylakh pisen (1893; “On the Wings of Songs”) and Dumy i mriyi (1899; “Thoughts and Dreams”) or the historical drama Boyarynya (1914; The Noblewoman).

Serhii Plokhy
Award-winning historian and writer, professor of Ukrainian history at Harvard University. He also serves there as the director of the Harvard Ukrainian Research Institute. His must-read book “The Gates of Europe: A History of Ukraine” gives a comprehensive, engaging, and solid understanding and overview of Ukraine's history.

LISTEN TO UKRAINIAN MUSIC

KAZKA
This Ukrainian band mixes pop elements with electro-folk music. Created in 2017, vocalist Oleksandra Zaritska, sopilka player Dmytro Mazuriak and multi-instrumentalist Mykyta Budash form now an influential and recognizable Ukrainian group.

ONUKA
Founded in 2013 by Ukrainian musicians Yevhen Filatov and Nata Zhyzhchenko, ONUKA is a popular Ukrainian electro-folk band. The use of Ukrainian folk instruments became a very key part of its musical signature.

Jamala
Ukrainian singer/songwriter and actress who found international success in 2016 after winning the Eurovision Song Contest.

Sergey Babkin
Ukrainian artist, musician, actor, composer, author and performer. Member of the 5'Nizza group founded in 2000. According to him, his focus is on performing in general beyond singing or just playing music.
GO_A
Ukrainian band basing its art and music on Ukrainian vocals, modern electronic dance beats, African drums, and strong guitar riffs. They gained great recognition and popularity in Ukraine after the release of the single "Vesnyanka".

MONATIK
Ukrainian artist, composer, performer, sound producer. Monatik listens to and produces music across many genres and styles (soul, funk, electro, pop). Some of his most popular hits include "To, Ot Chego Bez Uma", "Gluboko", "Vitamin D" or "Krujit" ("Spinning").

Kalush Orchestra
Ukrainian band formed by the Ukrainian rap group Kalush (including founder and rapper Oleh Psiuk) and joined by multi-instrumentalists Tymofii Muzychuk and Vitalii Duzhyk. This musical project focuses on rap music while adding a mix of folk notes and Ukrainian traditional music. Kalush Orchestra could represent Ukraine at the Eurovision Song Contest 2022 with the song "Stefania".

The HARDKISS
Ukrainian rock band formed in 2011 by artist and lead singer Julia Sanina and creative producer and guitarist Valeriy Bebko. Their musical universe borrows from rock, pop and electronic music. Their songs "Make-up", "Cranes", "Free Me", "Ships" or "Cobra" are among the best hits of the band and contributed greatly to their overall success within the industry.

Okean Elzy
Famous Ukrainian rock band formed in 1994 whose frontman is Ukrainian musician, vocalist, politician and public activist Svyatoslav Vakarchuk. Powerful lyrics and vocals, strong instrumental and iconic ballads can characterize the group's music style. Notable songs from Okean Elzy include "Not Your War", "Ne ydy" ("Don't Go"), or "Obijmi" ("Hug me").

After years of hybrid warfare with Russia, Ukraine is now under unjustified and massive military attack from Russia. In Ukraine, military units and residencial areas are being bombed and casualties among civilians (hundreds have been reported already) are happening across the Ukrainian territory.

Since 2014, the war in Donbass has cost the lives of around 15,000 people, and more than 1.5 million people were forced to flee or leave their homes due to the conflict in the Eastern part of Ukraine between Russian-backed separatists and the Ukrainian army containing the aggression. A substantial part of Luhansk and Donetsk have since been occupied by unofficial authorities where human rights, freedom of speech and rule of law are being violated.

On February 24, 2022, Russia, under Putin’s leadership, decided to attack Ukraine from the north (Belarus), the east (the Ukrainian region of Donbas) and the south (sea of Azov and Black sea). The constant threat of an attack for weeks had already been weakening the Ukrainian economy and overall stability but the Russian “military operation” in Ukraine or more precisely the war on Ukraine’s sovereign territory is now profoundly damaging Ukrainian infrastructures, Ukrainian economy as well as threatening European overall security.

But most importantly, this Russian aggression and invasion is now threatening the innocent lives of thousands of people, democratic values, human rights, Ukraine’s independence and peace in Europe.

IT IS NOW MORE CRUCIAL THAN EVER TO SUPPORT UKRAINE IN DENMARK (AND BEYOND) IN ALL POSSIBLE WAYS (PROACTIVELY, POLITICALLY, FINANCIALLY, BUT ALSO CULTURALLY, LOGISTICALLY… CONCRETELY).
MAIN OBJECTIVES OF THIS CALL TO ACTION:

- SHOW TRUE AND UNCONDITIONAL SOLIDARITY WITH/SUPPORT FOR UKRAINE BY LEARNING ABOUT THE UKRAINIAN CULTURE AND UKRAINIAN WORLDVIEW.

- DEFEND IN WORDS AND ACTIONS THE SOVEREIGNTY AND INDEPENDENCE OF UKRAINE THROUGH ART, CULTURE, EXCHANGES & DISCUSSIONS, AND MORE.

- WORK FOR STABILITY AND PEACE IN EUROPE BY MOBILIZING PEOPLE AND PROVIDING THEM WITH IDEAS ON HOW TO SUPPORT UKRAINE.

- DEFEND DEMOCRACY IN EUROPE & PROTECT AND PROMOTE EVEN FURTHER HUMAN RIGHTS IN EASTERN EUROPE THROUGH TALKS OR WORKSHOPS.

- FIGHT AGAINST DISINFORMATION AND RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA BY SHARING CONSTRUCTIVE, RELIABLE AND AS TRUSTWORTHY SOURCES OF INFORMATION AS POSSIBLE.
